Confederate States Almanac

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

1862.

BEING THE SECOND AFTER BISSEXTILE, OR LEAP YEAR, THE EIGHTY-SIXTH OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, AND THE SECOND OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

CALCULATIONS MADE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA.

EDITED BY T. O. SUMMERS, D.D.

Nashbille, Tenn.: SOUTHERN METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE. 1862.

[Entered, according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, by J. B. M'FERRIN, Ac'r, in the office of the District Court for the Middle District of Tenuessee 1

THE STARS AND BARS.

'Trs sixty-two!—and sixty-one, With the old Union, now is gone, Reeking with bloody wars— Gone with that ensign, once so prized, The stars and stripes, now so despised— Struck for the stars and bars.

The burden once of patriot's song, Now badge of tyranny and wrong, For us no more it waves: We claim the stars—the stripes we yield,

We give them up on every field,
Where fight the Southern braves.
Our motto this, "God and our right,"

Our motte tins, "tod and our right,"
For sacred liberty we fight—
Not for the lust of power:
Compelled by wrongs the sword t' unsheathe,
We'll fight, be free, or cease to breathe—
We'll die busore we cower.

By all the blood car fathers shed.
We will from tyranny be freed—
We will not conquered be:
Like them, no higher power we own
But God's—we bow to him alone—
We will, we will be free!

For homes and altars we contend, Assured that God will us defend— He makes our cause his own: Not of our gallant patriot host, Not of brave leaders, do we boast— We trust in God alone. Sumter, and Bethel, and Bull Run, Witnessed fleroe battles fought and won, By aid of Power Divine: We met the foe, who us defled, In all his pomp, in all his pride, Shouting, "Manasseh's mine!"

It was not thine, thou boasting foe! We laid thy vandal legions low—We made them blue the sod:
At Lexington the braggart yields,
Leesburg, Belmont, and other fields—Still help us, mighty God!

Thou smileds on the patriot seven— Thou smilest on the brave eleven Free, independent States: Their number thou wilt soon increase,* And bless them with a lasting peace, Within their happy gates.

No more shall violence then be heard, Wasting, destruction, no more feared, In all this Southern land: "Praise," she her gates devoutly calls, "Salvation." her Heaven-guarded walls— What shall her power withstand?

"The little one," by Heavenly aid,
"A thousand is—the small one made,
"A nation—O, how strong!"
Jehovah, who the right befriends,
Jehovah, who our flag defends,
Is hastening it along!

MEMORABILIA.

THE following chronological table of remarkable events, which transpired in connection with the organization of the Confederate States, during the past year, may be found convenient for reference. It would have been much more extended, if we could have ascertained the dates, etc., of other events which are worthy of being thus chronicled. The compilation of this table cost us considerable labor, as we had to search out facts and dates among the contradictory statements of newspapers, etc. We have taken great pains to avoid errors, but an approximation to correctness is all that can be realized.
